Russia Agrees to Match Allied Figures on Troops

Molotov Says United States and Russia Are in Complete Agreement; Makes Proposal Providing Reports

Lake Success, N. Y., Nov. 20 (AP)—Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov announced today that Russia was ready to accept a United States proposal that all members of the United Nations submit complete figures on all troops both at home and abroad.

He declared that Russia and the United States were in complete accord and added that Russia was ready to draft agreements to carry out the proposal which originally was made in the U. N. Assembly by Warren R. Austin, head of the U. S. delegation.

Molotov spoke before the Assembly's political committee, which had met to take up a Soviet proposal that all U. N. members report on troops and bases they maintain on non-enemy territory.

Molotov withdrew this and submitted a new proposal which provided for reports giving the following information:

Where and in what numbers troops are located on non-enemy territory.

At what points in enemy states and in what numbers Allied troops are located.

At what points in neutral states and in what numbers Allied troops are located and the size of garrisons in such bases.

The information should apply to the situation as of November 1, 1946.

Edward C. Kloth To Open Seals Sale

Former Lamplighter Will Turn on Switch at Wall Street Display

An original lamplighter, Edward C. Kloth of Kingston, who in 1889 lighted the old gas lamps from the Tuberculosis Hospital to Bruyn Avenue, will open the 1946 Christmas Seal Sale on Friday evening, November 22 at 7:30 p. m. by turning on the switch from the lamppost to the huge double-barred cross which adorns the Ostrander building at the head of Wall street, this city.

Little Carol Elizabeth Connors, granddaughter of Harry S. Ensign, president of the Ulster County Tuberculosis and Health Association, will sell the first Christmas Seal to the lamplighter. At various points throughout the county, double-barred crosses will be set up and automatically lighted with the ceremony in Kingston.

The ceremony, symbolizing the emergence of fresh hope after darkness of the past years, is featured on the 1946 Christmas Seal. The 40th annual Christmas Seal Sale to raise funds for the control of tuberculosis will be conducted throughout the county and nation from November 25 through December 25.

Of the money raised 50 per cent will be used within the state for statewide campaigns against tuberculosis. The remaining 50 per cent will be forwarded to the National Tuberculosis Association to support services conducted by them.

First Seal in 1907

Christmas Seals were first sold in this country in 1907 when Miss Emily P. Bissell of Wilmington, Del. adopted an idea from Denmark, promoting a seal sale for the benefit of tuberculosis patients in a small hospital near Wilmington. The first Seal Sale in Ulster county was in 1908 when Mrs. Clara Norton Reed conducted a seal sale at her home on Crown street.

In honor of the 40th annual Christmas Seal Sale, each sheet of 20 seals this year carries four special portrait seals. They are of: A. Van Valkenburgh, and Leigh J. Hodges, social workers and newspapermen of earlier days; Edmund P. Rochford, chairman of the Seal Sale, said that the seal will be used for such purposes as free chest X-rays, for help to patients at the tuberculosis hospital and for nutrition and health education.

New Rent Formula May Be Written By Next Congress

Provisions May Be Made for Increases Where Inequities Are Discovered

Washington, Nov. 20 (AP)—A prediction that Congress will write a new formula for controlling rents, with provision for increases "where inequities exist," came today from Rep. Wolcott (R., Mich.).

He also forecast that the new G.O.P.-dominated Congress will continue government rent controls—at least until next July 1.

Wolcott is to become chairman of the House Banking Committee Continued on Page Five

Ferry Resumes Its Run After Repairs

Cracked Cylinder Fixed Tuesday; New Part Order for Boat

Temporary repairs to the ferry George Clinton, plying between Kingston and Rhinecliff, were completed Tuesday afternoon, and after a trial trip it was announced that the ferry would begin its regular scheduled of trips this morning.

The cracked cylinder was welded at the Ashley plant on Henry street, and was installed yesterday. A new cylinder head has been ordered and as soon as it is received it will be installed.

Work of installing the new cylinder will be done at night. There will be no interruption in the operation of the ferry.

The ferry broke down Saturday.

State Jurists Are 'Cracking Down' on Fraud Claims to Prevent 'Easy Annulments'

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 20 (AP)—Couple seeking to shed their marital bonds through "easy annulments" are finding tougher going under a growing move by New York jurists to crack down on so-called "flimsy" claims of fraud in the marriage contract.

An Associated Press survey showed Supreme Court justices, concerned over the perjury deluge of husbands and wives asking annulments, are looking closely at the alleged "frauds" by which petitioners contend their spouses pulled the wool over their eyes.

"So many cases are now coming before the courts in our Fifth Judicial District for degrees of annulment upon ground of fraud that it has become virtually necessary to scrutinize them with great care," declared Justice Abram Zoller of Little Falls.

"Annulment actions have reached the proportions of an avalanche," said Justice Isadore Bookstein of Albany.

"I am against granting annulments for silly reasons such as he told me before we were married that he was earning $35 a week but now I find he is getting only $25 or she promised we would have three children but we only have two," said Justice Alonzo G. Hinkley of Buffalo.

Under New York's stringent Divorce Law—adultery is the only ground—the annulment route is preferred by those seeking freedom, furthermore, the state's Domestic Relations Law set forth marriage as a civil contract which, like any other contract, can be voided by fraud.

Appeals Court Blamed

Many judges blame the Court of Appeals, New York's highest tribunal, for opening the door to easy annulments with a 1903 decision in which it reversed a lower court "for not giving to the element of a free and true consent in a marriage contract that high importance which it has in contracts generally."

Following that, and a similar decision a year later, annulments were granted far more frequently than formerly, said Bookstein.

Much of the blame for the current volume of annulment actions is attached to hasty marriages.

"Many have been too young to marry," Zoller observed. Many postwar volume is "tremendous."

Convention Says Action Is Violation of Norris-La Guardia Statute

Resolution Says U. S. Won't Tolerate Any Economic Slavery

Atlantic City, Nov. 20 (AP)—The C.I.O. convention today condemned a federal court order designed to head off a full-scale coal work stoppage as a "clear violation of the Norris-LaGuardia Act."

The delegates approved unanimously an anti-labor injunction resolution to which they added:

"We condemn the action taken by the federal government in obtaining a sweeping injunction against the United Mine Workers of America."

"This is a clear violation of the Norris-LaGuardia Act."

"No anti-labor injunctions can dispose of the problems now confronting workers who see their earnings shrink before the fast rising cost of living."

"American democracy cannot tolerate any attempt to impose economic slavery through various anti-labor injunctions."

The name of John L. Lewis, mine workers' president who returned from the C.I.O. to the A.F.L. last winter, was not mentioned during the proceedings on the anti-labor injunctions resolution.

Van Bittner, chairman of the resolutions committee and of the C.I.O.'s southern organizing drive, told the delegates before they voted that he had as much experience on labor injunctions as anyone in the room.

"Insofar as the mine workers are concerned, we are not going into the merits of the controversy in any way, except as it involves use of the injunction to settle labor disputes," Bittner said, adding:

"We are against labor injunctions anywhere at any time."

While the convention itself gave its attention to resolutions, chiefs of the "Big Three" among C.I.O. unions—steel, auto, and electrical workers—were working together on a pattern of wage demands.

Huge Fund Is Cited

In a drive to put industry on the defensive, the C.I.O. predicted manufacturers would have a $7,700,000,000 fund available for pay raises in 1947.

Despite rumors, C.I.O. spokesmen said flatly no figure had been decided upon as a talking point for higher wage negotiations.

More and more the C.I.O. convention was emerging as a vehicle to prepare the minds of the C.I.O.'s 6,000,000 members—and the public—for a possible deadlock with industry such as occurred last winter when each of the "Big Three" called a strike.

Marriage Licenses Continue to Increase

With Kingston's birthrate soaring to new record highs the records of the city clerk's office show that there has been an all-time record high in the number of wedding licenses issued this year.

The records of City Clerk Raymond McAndrew show that up until today he has issued a total of 430 licenses, as compared with a total of 242 licenses issued for the entire year in 1945.

So far this month the city clerk has issued 20 licenses and that number is expected to be increased before the month ends.

Troops Climb Alps To Rescue Eleven Aboard Airliner

Transport From Italy Carries Food, Medical Supplies; Five Are Reported Hurt

Frankfurt, Germany, Nov. 20 (AP)—Two U. S. bomber pilots spotted the wreckage of an American Army transport plane on a 12,000-foot-high plateau in the southern French Alps today as French Alpine troops struggled up the steep slopes to aid the seven passengers, including four women and a girl, and four crewmen.

A C-47 transport plane was reported en route from Turin, Italy, with food, blankets and medical supplies as the two bombers circled the wreckage of the C-53—which crash-landed yesterday—to guide rescue parties.

Reports from Vienna said five persons aboard the downed craft were hurt, but that there were no fatalities. There was no information as to who was injured or how badly.

Passengers on the C-53 included a U. S. brigadier general and his wife and the wives of two other brigadier generals, one of whom was the mother of the pilot, Capt. Ralph H. Tate, Jr.

The transport, en route from Munich to Pisa, via Marseilles, carried the following passengers: army officials in Vienna said: Col. William C. McMahon of Buffalo, N. Y., retiring chief of staff, U. S. Forces in Austria; Mrs. McMahon; Mary Alice McMahon, 11, their daughter.

Brig. Gen. Loyal M. Haynes, former deputy chief of staff, U. S. F. A., now head of the U. S. F. A. Advisory Board.

Mrs. Haynes.

Mrs. Ralph Tate, wife of Brig. Gen. Ralph Tate, deputy U. S. chief of the plane's pilot.

Mrs. Albertina Snavely of Surfside, Calif., wife of Brig. Gen. Ralph Snavely, chief of air division, U.S.F.A.

Crew members were: Capt. Ralph H. Tate, Jr., pilot; Second Lt. Irving Mathew, copilot.

Sgt. Louis Hill, radio chief; Staff Sgt. Wayne G. Folsom, crew chief.

All crew members were stationed at Tulln airport, near Vienna.

Gen. Snavely and Gen. Tate left Vienna today aboard a B-17 today for the scene of the crash, accompanied by Capt. Thomas B. Mervine of the medical corps, carrying emergency medical supplies.

150,000 Ex-GI's Lose U.S. Payments; Violated Ruling

Samsonville Crash Investigation Is Closed by Sheriff

One Person Still Is Kept at Hospital; Funeral for One of Dead This Evening

Investigation of the automobile accident that claimed two lives in Samsonville about 3 a. m. Tuesday has been closed, the sheriff's office said today.

The driver of the car, Mrs. Zenia Davis, of Samsonville, has maintained that she was blinded by the headlights of an oncoming car and was forced off the road.

Preliminary funeral services for one of the victims, Mrs. Charles Phillips, of Hudson, will be held this evening at 8 o'clock at the W. N. Conner Funeral Home, 236 Fair street. The Rev. William J. McVey, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, will be in charge. The body will be taken to Hudson on Thursday where further services and burial will be made.

Mrs. Phillips was the wife of Charles Phillips of Hudson.

The remains of James Kelder, second victim in the crash, are being held by Coroner Ernest A. Kelly, pending arrival of relatives from New York. The services, he said, probably will be held on Saturday.

Mrs. Celia Kelder, 69, mother of the victim, is suffering from lacerations of the head and body. She was reported in good condition.

The driver of the car, Mrs. Zenia Davis, was released from the hospital after receiving first aid treatment for minor cuts and bruises.

Veterans Failed to Give Reports on Earnings in School or Job Training

Washington, Nov. 20 (AP)—The Veterans Administration reported today it has suspended substance payments to approximately 150,000 ex-GI's for failure to report earnings in school or job training.

The payments, made under the G.I. Bill of Rights, amount to $65 monthly for unmarried veterans in school or on job training and to $90 monthly for married men. More than 1,200,000 veterans draw the allotments.

Tuition payments, made directly to schools, are not affected.

Under legislation passed last summer, veterans' payments and earnings are limited to a total of $175 monthly for those without dependents and to $200 monthly for those with dependents. In the event those figures are exceeded, the substance allowances must be reduced accordingly.

The Veterans Administration warned on November 1 that the substance allowances would be halted unless reports of earnings were received November 5. Suspensions are to remain in effect until the information has been received.

V.A. said payments have been discontinued to 149,046 recipients and that several branch offices have not yet reported the number of delinquents in their areas. The percentage affected in various districts ranged from four to 76 per cent of the total enrolled in education and job training programs.

'Randolph Churchill' Held

New Canaan, Conn., Nov. 20 (AP)—A motorist who identified himself as Randolph Churchill, was arrested on a reckless driving charge last night after State Policeman John Carlson said, he was clocked at 80 miles an hour on the Merritt Parkway. Carlson said Churchill gave his address as the Ambassador Hotel, New York city, had an English driver's license and was driving a car registered in New Jersey. He was released under $50 bond for an appearance December 9 in the municipal court here.

Escaped Lifer Finds Storm Worse Than Prison Cell

Salem, Ore., Nov. 20 (AP)—Life term convict John Tuel, 47, was thankful today for the comfort of his cell after finding the northwest coastal storms worse than prison.

Reedsport, Ore., Chief of Police McCabe reported Tuel stumbled into the jail house of the coastal town, wet and haggard, and pleaded with police to "feed me and lock me up x x x I just can't stand this weather."

Chief McCabe said the escaped lifer-termer told of having walked 80 miles from Eugene to Reedsport during coastal storms with winds so strong he once had to crawl on hands and knees across a railroad trestle.

Firearms Dealers Must Have Permit Under New Statute

Beginning January 1, 1947, it will be necessary for all dealers in firearms and gunsmiths to procure a license. This license, which must be secured each year and will expire on December 31 of the year issued, will be issued in Ulster county through the County Judge and by the Pistol Permit Bureau. The fee will be $2.

This new provision is Chapter 532 of the laws of 1946, effective on January 1, 1947, which amends Section 1941 of the Penal Law. The law provides that licenses shall be issued by the County Judge of the county in which applicant maintains his place of business. Applications will be supplied through the Pistol Permit Bureau in the county court house.

100,000 Men Are Out

Approximately 100,000 miners—about one-fourth of the nation's coal producers—already had halted work.

In the crisis:

The army announced that troops will be ready, if needed to maintain order.

The government readied a call to governors of all states east of the Mississippi for "brownouts" and rationing of electricity and manufactured gas—a move affecting millions.

Republican and Democratic lawmakers joined in a rising chorus of demands for labor-management legislation when the new Congress meets January 3. There were some scattered demands from lawmakers for an immediate special session.

Under Lewis' own formula, the present government-union contract which went into effect when the administration seized the pits last May becomes "void" at one minute past midnight tonight. Presumably, Lewis has until that hour to withdraw his cancellation of the pact—or risk punishment for contempt of court.

He was ordered to withdraw it in an order issued by Federal Judge T. Alan Goldsborough on Monday.

Two Alternatives

Labor attorneys said that unless the United Mine Workers' boss elects simply to ignore the courts they see only two apparent alternatives for him:

Go into court today and ask Judge Goldsborough to vacate the order on the ground that it violates the Norris-LaGuardia anti-injunction act, or that it requires Lewis to do something rather than restraining him from doing something. This is the usual procedure Continued on Page Fifteen

Republican Tax Cut Proposal Might Run Into Trouble

Washington, Nov. 20 (AP)—Increasing opposition indicated today that Republican leaders may run into a major fight against their plan for a quick 20 percent reduction in individual income taxes once Congress meets.

In talks with reporters, two more G.O.P. House members—Reps. Curtis and Miller of Nebraska—added their voices to those of scattering party members already questioning its wisdom.

On the Democratic side, veteran Rep. Doughton of North Carolina took a firm stand against any tax reduction until the federal budget is balanced and a start made on reducing the federal debt.

Doughton guided the writing of Democratic tax legislation for 12 years and his views usually command a large following in his party.

Miller disputed the right of the House Republican Steering Committee to speak for all party members on tax matters.

"They are taking in a lot of territory when they try to say now exactly what the rest of the members intend to do," he commented.

Miller and Curtis both said they considered reducing expenditures one has dreamed of.

89-Cent Umbrella

Syracuse, N. Y., Nov. 20 (AP)—Mrs. Esther D. Malmgren's 89-cent umbrella, which she left in a department store six years ago, became a nine-dollar model, she revealed today.

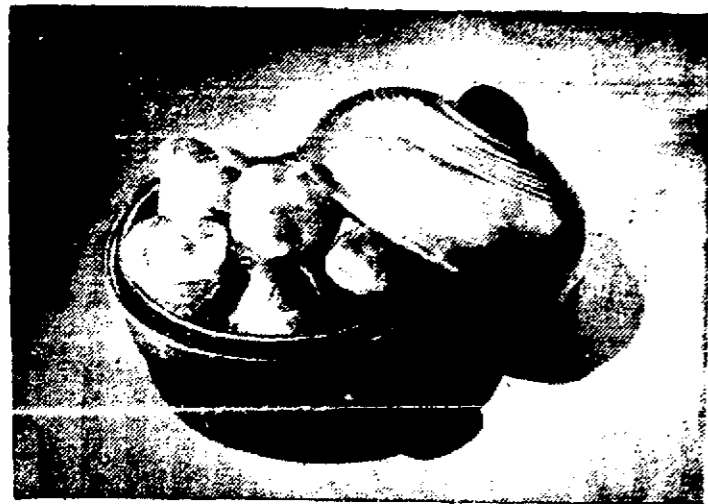

Mrs. Malmgren, a public health nurse, said she went to the department store several times, but her umbrella never showed up. A few days ago, while looking at some "shopworn" umbrellas in a sales rack at the store, she identified her umbrella—marked down from $9 to $3. She got it back without paying.

America Holds Record

Cobb, Erie, Nov. 20 (AP)—The United States liner America, the biggest commercial ship under the U. S. flag, today held the record among American vessels for the eastward crossing of the Atlantic.

The 26,454-ton passenger vessel, on her war-delayed maiden voyage to Europe, was only four days, 22 hours, 22 minutes out of New York when she dropped anchor in Cobb-Cork harbor at 11:15 last night (6:15 p. m., E.S.T.).

First U. S. Newspaperwoman Hailed as 'Mother of Freedom'

By DOROTHY ROE
AP Newsfeatures Writer

A new American heroine has been brought to life from the dusty records of Colonial New York, to stand beside such figures as Betsy Ross and Martha Washington as one of the greatest feminine figures of American history.

She is Anna Zenger, America's first newspaperwoman, described as the inspiration and goading spirit of this country's first free newspaper by Kent Cooper, in his new historical novel "Anna Zenger, Mother of Freedom."

Known for his own determined fight to maintain freedom of the press in a modern world threatened by dictators, Mr. Cooper credits Anna Zenger, wife of John Peter Zenger, publisher of the New York Weekly Journal, with the first effort to establish a press free from government controls.

Though history has recognized Zenger as the first champion of freedom of the press in America, Mr. Cooper, after exhaustive research into early Colonial records, advances the theory that it was really the printer's beautiful and talented wife, Anna, who wrote the barbed paragraphs and ringing editorials of the New York Weekly Journal, which roused the early Colonists to a new conception of freedom.

She was, undoubtedly, the world's first woman editor and publisher, editing the Journal during her husband's nine months of imprisonment, and continuing to publish it for nearly three years after his death.

Mr. Cooper bases his theory on records showing that Zenger himself lacked both the ambition and the writing talent to produce the sparkling independent paper which was the first voice of press freedom in America. Others among his associates have been variously credited with the writings, but research convinced the author that the moving spirit and the facile mind behind the paper was that of Anna Zenger.

The New York Weekly Journal was first published in 1733, to voice the people's right and expose the machinations of a tyrannical governor. Zenger, a printer, was goaded by his wife into taking the step, according to the caption by Esta Cosgrave of an early American heroine.

In order to combat the influence of the only other newspaper in New York, which was controlled by the government.

The new paper's success was immediate and its results far-reaching. When at last Zenger was jailed, without indictment, his wife carried on as editor and publisher of the paper. The services of the most famous lawyer of the colonies, Andrew Hamilton, of Philadelphia, were enlisted to defend her husband when at last he came to trial.

The great lawyer, a friend of Benjamin Franklin, had followed the daring course of the little paper, and served without fee to free its publisher, whose courage also had attracted the attention of Franklin.

The glory of the acquittal, however, went chiefly to Hamilton, while Zenger and his wife were almost forgotten in the celebrations of the Colonists.

The credo of Anna Zenger is presented in Mr. Cooper's novel in a letter written to her husband during his long imprisonment, of which four copies later were printed and presented to Hamilton, Franklin, James Alexander (attorney for Zenger) and to Anna Zenger. The letter reads:

"Dear John:

"This is how I feel about what we are fighting for:

"1.—Man's progress stopped when freedom to print was suppressed. Restore the right to print and he will go forward to greater things.

"2.—A free press can develop and bring to reality other freedoms such as the right to speak openly and the right to worship as one chooses.

"3.—Once established, freedom cannot survive unless the press that established it remains free.

"4.—Good morals, not government, should control what the press prints.

"All of this is worth fighting for! We are suffering for what we are doing but all of those who have done things to make this world better had their trials and tribulations.

"God will bless us if we do not quit!

"I love you, John!"

"Anna."

Fresh, Frozen Fish

Pinch-hit for Canned

Fresh and frozen fish, both in the category of plentiful foods for December, will have to do some pinch-hitting this winter for the fish that did not get into cans. Canned fish supplies are still 10 per cent below pre-war levels of five pounds per person but larger than for several years past. However, the estimated 600,000,000 pound pack this year will not have as high a drain in military and other government needs as last year's pack.

Some of the reasons for the disappointment in this year's pack are the low landings of pilchards (California sardines) and salmon. Salmon is at the lowest level since 1922.

Urged to Reduce Waste Before Cutting Taxes

Albany, Nov. 20.—The New York State Automobile Dealers today urged Irving M. Ives, newly elected United States Senator, to make a study of unnecessary federal waste one of his prime objectives. In a letter to Mr. Ives, Carl E. Fribble, Norwich, president of the dealer organization, said the majority of dealers in the state were interested in effecting necessary economies than in the immediate cut in taxes advocated by many Republican leaders. Mr. Fribble said the dealers think reduction of taxes "would be an excellent thing for the economy of this country," but feel three other economic moves are of greater importance. "First," he stated, "we think the most important approach is to eliminate completely every unnecessary federal employee and waste. Certainly the bureaus and agencies created by the New Deal are manifold, and we believe a thorough study should be made to eliminate absolutely every unnecessary federal employee and wasteful expenditure." Mr. Fribble also urged that the budget be balanced and a substantial payment made on the national debt. "Then and only then," he added, "are you in a position to decide whether taxes can be reduced five, 10 or 20 per cent."

Smugglers Fear Magic Eye of Custom Men

By TED McKENNA
(AP Newsfeatures)
San Diego, Calif.—The "inspector," an X-ray and fluoroscopic arrangement, is doing more than its share in curbing smuggling at the international border near San Ysidro, 16 miles south of here.

The machine, which detects the presence of contraband goods on persons crossing the line by looking right through their clothes, was invented during the war by Henry Sicular, San Francisco scientist.

Robert E. Noonan, U.S. collector of customs here, says the "inspector," in operation since July, 1945, has more than paid for itself in collecting fines on objects which otherwise would not have been "declared" to customs inspectors for duty payment.

Located just outside the customs house at San Ysidro, the outfit looks like a couple of telephone booths set about four feet apart. The "inspector" screen, in one booth, is operated by a foot pedal, which, when pressed, shows first a head and shoulders view, then a midsection picture and finally a view of the lower extremities. As the pedal is pressed, each view lasts only six seconds, to avoid injury from the rays.

Keys in a man's pocket may be seen so clearly that they may be counted, and the same with cigarettes in a package, according to Noonan. Pens, pencils and wallets are easily identifiable.

Nearly 30,000 persons have passed this magic eye since its installation, and some 2,000 seizures have been made, Noonan said. About 300 an hour can be run through the "inspector," as against four per hour by the old method of having a suspect undress, submit to search and don clothing again.

The machine is not run at any set period of the day. At any moment the inspectors may order all persons crossing the border on foot or in autos, to go through the machine.

Noonan says the greatest good comes from the machine's deterrent powers. Knowledge that the machine is there has stopped many a would-be smuggler and the number of declarations has risen "considerably."

Mrs. LaMontagne Gives $500,000 to Columbia

A gift of $500,000 to Columbia University by Mrs. Beatrice LaMontagne of New York and Aiken, S. C., announced yesterday by Dr. Frank D. Fackenthal, acting president, was the largest single contribution to the University during the 1945-46 academic year when all gifts totaled $1,876,796.10.

Mrs. LaMontagne's gift, it was revealed by Dr. Fackenthal, will establish the Beatrice LaMontagne Research Fund for research in medicine and surgery and the award of fellowships to be known as the "Beatrice LaMontagne Research Fellowships." Conditions of the gift for the income to be divided evenly in the two fields of medicine and surgery and "to be expended in such fields on the recommendation of the executive officers of the departments of Medicine and Surgery, respectively, and the Dean of the Medical School."

Gifts in amounts which varied from thousands to a few dollars came to Columbia during the year from alumni, friends, students, faculty members and educational foundations devoted to the furtherance of advanced study and research. Gifts to capital included $890,743.09 to special endowments, $35,621.44 to general endowments and $4,348.50 to purposes of the department of Buildings and Grounds. Gifts to income for specific purposes totaled $887,211.41 and for general purposes $58,671.66.

Banks Spearhead Sales of Extra Savings Bonds

Washington, D. C.—More than 15,000 banks throughout the nation are spearheading the Treasury's intensified Savings Bonds promotion program between Armistice Day and Pearl Harbor Day, according to the November issue of Banking magazine, official journal of the American Bankers Association.

Responding to the Treasury's request of continued assistance from the banks in selling government bonds to individual investors, the banks will redouble their Savings Bonds to every American during the 26-day period of intensified Savings Bonds publicity.

Banks ranging from those in country towns to the large financial institutions in the cities of the East, South, Mid-West and West will act as Savings Bonds selling agents, contributing their services in the interest of the national welfare and of the citizens of their communities.

ABA Leads Drive
During the war, the banks were issuing agents for 85 per cent of all War Bonds bought by the public. Continuing their efforts into peacetime, the banks created a special committee of their national organization, the American Bankers Association, to deal exclusively with sale and promotion of the bonds. This committee on U. S. Savings Bonds, acting in close cooperation with Treasury officials in Washington, is the nerve-center of the bankers' efforts in support of Savings Bonds sales.

Officials of the ABA and other nationally prominent bankers have in recent weeks re-endorsed the Treasury's Savings Bonds program as one of the soundest means of financing the government and managing its war-swollen debt. They have endorsed statements by Secretary of the Treasury Snyder that Savings Bonds serve as an inflation preventive, create a healthier debt situation by distributing the debt as widely as possible in the hands of the American people, and at the same time serve as a practical method of saving and constitute an outstanding investment opportunity for small investors.

50,000,000 Sales Pieces
Through the banks, more than 50,000,000 pieces of sales literature in support of the campaign will be distributed to the public. In addition, many of the larger banks will feature lobby displays, window decorations and other promotional techniques in support of the Savings Bonds program.

At the recent annual convention of the American Bankers Association in Chicago, more than 4,000 bankers who were in attendance expressed their agreement with the views of Secretary Snyder. With reference to the Savings Bonds Program, Secretary Snyder said:

"This program is of prime importance to our postwar financing and is vital on the fiscal front at the present time. The program is absorbing a considerable volume of funds which would otherwise have been spent, and is helping to achieve a broader distribution of the public debt. Savings Bonds promotion is actually doing this. Sales this fiscal year will be about $8,000,000,000 if the present rate of sale continues."

Equipment Ready For Snow Removal Studing Advises

Plows, Loaders Prepared for First Storm by Mechanics at City Barn

All of the city's snow removal equipment is ready to roll when the first heavy snowstorm breaks

over Kingston, said Superintendent Ernest A. Studing of the Board of Public Works today.

The equipment has been all overhauled and is in readiness for the winter's work. Today men are greasing the snow loaders so that they will be in shape for immediate use when needed.

While heavy snows have been reported in some sections of the country, no snow has fallen in Kingston so far this season, although freezing temperatures have prevailed for several days.

This morning the official city thermometer was recording in the 20's and the lowest point reached during the night was 27 degrees.
Yesterday temperatures ranged from a low of 25 to a high of 31 degrees.

There was a heavy white frost
in the city last night.
Rainfall has been light this month with a total precipitation to date of .24 of an inch.

Molotov spoke before the political committee of the United Nations Assembly in support of a Soviet demand that all U.N. members disclose figures on the number of troops and bases they now have on non-enemy territory.

Apparently referring to the United States, he said "a great interest is displayed by some countries in the Arctic."

Molotov's declaration was the first official word the United Nations had received that Russia had withdrawn all her troops from Iran, although the Russian government had informed Iran last May that evacuations were completed.

Molotov's announcement, it was believed, would open the way for the Security Council to drop the long dormant Russian-Iranian case from its agenda.

Gossoo Funeral Rites in Germany

Caddies of P.F.C. Earl Gossoo carried the flag-draped casket of the Kingston soldier who was fatally injured in Germany October 19.

Gossoo Family Is Given Story of How Soldier Died

A letter of condolence, embodying details of her son's death in Germany, has been received by Mrs. Emma Gossoo of 171 Wall street from Lt. Col. Samuel McC. Goodwin, commanding officer of the 16th Constabulary Squadron to which P.F.C. Earl F. Gossoo was attached.

Accompanying the letter were photographs of funeral services held for the Kingston boy who was the victim of an automobile accident about 40 miles from Berlin on October 19. He died after a collision involving an American jeep, an armored car and German tank towing two trailers.

In his letter, Col. Goodwin explained that the 16th Constabulary sent out night patrols from Berlin covering an area of 65
miles over the super-highways
Hitler built for war transportation.

Private Gossoo was with a patrol on October 18 and 19 consisting of a jeep and armored car whose mission was to lend aid to Americans or allies in need of protection along the road. Orders were to contact a British patrol, then return to Berlin.

About 40 miles from Berlin, the patrol came upon a parked German tractor with two trailers attached. As the jeep with Private Gossoo as a passenger was driven alongside the stalled equipment, a Russian soldier stepped from the front of the tractor into its path.
The jeep driver swung his vehicle to the left applying his brakes and the armored car in the rear crashed into and overrode the smaller auto and crushed it beneath its weight.

Taken to Aid Station
Private Gossoo was removed to a British first aid station in a civilian car commandeered through the aid of the Russian officer.

which handles price and rent control legislation.
His statement to reporters came shortly after O.P.A. was represented by a high official as "strongly opposed" to a general increase in rent ceilings but favoring decontrol of transient hotel rents.

This official said any flat percentage rise in rents will have to come from Congress, if at all.
Wolcott is whipping into shape plans for a quick investigation of the housing program for veterans, which he has described as "outrageously bad."

Whether rent controls are extended beyond next June 30, he said, depends largely on whether the housing shortage is relieved by new construction.

"We must be realistic about rent controls," he said. "There is an awful housing shortage. If we lifted rent controls completely a small minority of unscrupulous landlords no doubt would gouge their tenants and there would be evictions. We saw some of that happen last summer when there was no rent control for a while."

The positions of the Republican lawmaker and the O.P.A. were disclosed against a background of increasing clamor from property owners for a general rise in ceilings or outright decontrol of rents.

A group of Detroit, Mich., landladies picketed the White House and O.P.A. headquarters, carrying banners calling for an end to rent control and saying "America wants freedom, not Communism."

In Texas, there were reports of a landlords' strike.

No 'Strike' Planned
Oklahoma City, Nov. 20 (AP)—

The board of directors of the National Apartment Owners Association decided against any "landlords' strike," but adopted a resolution demanding an immediate 15 per cent increase in rent ceilings.

At the final session of their convention, the 200 delegates last night also endorsed the industry's advisory committee's recommendations for removal of O.P.A. ceilings on new construction and for allowing owners to offer tenants leases at an increase of not more than 15 per cent under one-year contracts.

The association recommended that $250,000 be raised for new-paper advertising to present the property owners' side of the matter to the public.
The apartment owners also adopted a resolution urging that rent control be discontinued at the earliest possible date and under no circumstances later than next June 30 when it expires under the present law.

Kerhonkson High School

Kerhonkson, Nov. 19—For the first time since the Kerhonkson Union School was opened in 1925, each grade is able to have a separate room. This was brought about through the addition of the modern sliding doors in the auditorium, making provision for three rooms where only one existed previously. It is still possible to use the auditorium as such, as the doors may be opened easily for school assemblies and other audiences as in the past. At the present time there are 251 students in the grade and union high school sections and 195 senior high school students.

With the conclusion of the winter football season, Kerhonkson High School athletes, under the direction of Coach Bill Newark, are giving their attention to the basketball schedule. Practically all of the members of last year's successful team have graduated, which means that Coach Newark will necessarily start an inexperienced group from last year's junior varsity. The senior and junior varsity squads are made up of Vincent Pugliese, Frank Pugliese, James Sahler, Franklin Sahler, Herbert Wallitz, Nelson Brown, Francis Greene, Bernard Smith, Milford Ebert, Gordon Davenport, Donald Dandolos, Donald Van Vliet, Rolf Wustrau, Henry Davis, Vernon Proper, Jason Decker.

After a lapse of four years Kerhonkson has rejoined the NYSU League, composed of the Highland, Wallkill, Kerhonkson, Marlborough and New Paltz schools. The schedule is as follows:

Nov. 22—Ellenville at Ellenville.
Nov. 29—Liberty at Liberty.
Dec. 6—Marlborough at Kerhonkson.
Dec. 13—Wallkill * at Kerhonkson.
Dec. 19—New Paltz * at New Paltz.
Jan. 10—Maybrook at Kerhonkson.
Jan. 14—Highland * at Highland.
Jan. 21—Ellenville at Ellenville.
Jan. 31—Marlborough at Marlborough.
Feb. 11—New Paltz * at Kerhonkson.
Feb. 18—Montgomery at Montgomery.
Feb. 21—Maybrook at Maybrook.
Feb. 28—Wallkill * at Wallkill.
Mar. 7—Highland * at Kerhonkson.
Mar. 17, 18—Section IX Tournament.
(*) NYSU League games.
The Curtis Publishing Co. drive was the most successful drive the school has ever held with more than twice as much money taken in as in previous years. Subscriptions amounted to about $1,000, placing Kerhonkson third in the county at the present time in total sales in this drive.

Pennsylvania Lacks Public Health School

Harrisburg, Pa., Nov. 20 (AP)—Pennsylvania today is without a single medical school to provide public health training for physicians, says Dr. William Harvey Perkins, dean of Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia.

"Physicians must go outside the borders of Pennsylvania to find such institutions," he said in emphasizing that "we cannot face the criticism today of having a layman doing a physician's job in public health." He spoke before a joint conference of the Pennsylvania Federation of Women's Clubs and State Health Department officials last night.

To Discuss Workmen's Compensation Insurance

At a meeting today presenting an unusual instance of "business in government," prominent local business men and industrialists will discuss with officers of the State Insurance Fund, a state institution, mutual problems which arise in the field of workmen's compensation insurance. Edward J. Powers, executive director of the State Fund, will represent the State Fund management.

The representatives of local industry who will attend the meeting, to be held in the Hotel DeWitt, Clinton, are members of the State Fund's Policyholders' Advisory Council of the Albany district, all being policyholders in the State Fund. Through their own business experience they often are able to suggest improvements in compensation insurance services and the meetings also give an opportunity to State Fund staff members to explain any technical compensation problems brought up by council members. For these reasons it is Mr. Powers' belief that the meetings are a unique example of cooperation between business and government.

The sky tends to become darker in the stratosphere and stars can be seen readily in the daytime.

State Police Plan For Sub-Stations, New Radio System

The Division of State Police has announced from Albany that it is not only contemplating re-establishment of sub-stations in Troop C area, covering 10 counties, but the installation of two-way radio contact in all patrol cars.

During the war period some sub-stations were closed. Those almost ready for re-opening are at Narrowsburgh, Sullivan county and Margaretville, Delaware county. Others are planned for Dryden, Tompkins county; Waverly, Chemung county and Trumansburg, Tompkins county. Under the new program for Troop C, the area it patrols will have 24 sub-stations under command of the barracks at Sidney. Ulster county has sub-stations at Lake Katrine and Highland. A portion of the county is covered through the Waverly station. The new radio system will link all sub-stations with the headquarters on a two-way hookup as well as equipping the patrol cars with sending and receiving sets.

United Nations Jobs Are Not Available to More Americans

By CARLE HODGE

Lake Success, N. Y., Nov. 20 (AP)—The U.N. says, please, if you're an American stenographer—or the handiest handy man in all Albuquerque—it simply doesn't have a job for you.

It not only has 10 times as many job-seekers as jobs; it has too many Americans. If you're a multi-lingual typist from Costa Rica, an Ethiopian tax expert or a White Russian economist, there is slightly better than an outside chance. Otherwise, look for a veto on your application.

This, says John McDiarmid, assistant director of United Nations recruitment, is why.

Ordinary, run-of-the U.N. jobs already are filled, and some workers hired only for the General Assembly meeting will be released when it adjourns.

The only positions open—and there are very few of them—are for super-skilled specialists such as seasoned translators and public health experts.

What openings do exist will go when possible to nationals of member nations not already represented in the U.N. secretariat.

Some Americans, in fact, already at work here will be replaced by citizens of other countries.

It's not that U.N. has anything against Americans. Of the 2,777 persons it now employs here, 1,611, or more than half, are U. S. citizens. That, explains McDiarmid, an American, is just the trouble.

Secretary General, Trygve Lie has directed that his staff be cosmopolitan—that as many countries as possible, be represented.

Forty-seven nations already are represented, including non-members, Switzerland and Austria.

That means that nine of the 54 member lands have no nationals working at U.N. The nine probably will be visited eventually by U.N. overseas interviewers who are traversing the globe in search of likely applicants.

As long as U.N. headquarters are in America, McDiarmid says, Americans in the secretariat obviously will be in the majority. But the proportion is being cut down.

United Nations jobs pay about the same as most comparable jobs in business.

one that made everybody jump—including the fire truck.

When a substitute driver pushed a button on a fire truck the visitors and the firemen jumped—for safety—and the truck jumped right through a closed door.

The fireman, instead of pushing the siren button, accidentally pushed the motor starter. The truck was in gear and bashed its nose through two door panels before it was stopped.

Hair Raising

Chicago, Nov. 20 (AP)—Detective John Alcock didn't get his customary neat hair trim from his favorite barber but he didn't blame him.

When a man waving a pistol came into the west side shop yelling "gimme a shave, quick," the barber's clippers slipped and took out a big chunk of Alcock's hair.

Alcock pulled out his gun and seized the man, who protested he was joking. He said somebody had left a gun in his taxicab, but Alcock said it was a close shave and took him to headquarters for questioning.

Officials Will Attend Meeting on Pollution

Albany, Nov. 20—Approximately 800 public officials and representatives of industry, health, conservation and recreational organizations in 15 counties have been invited to participate in two pollution-abatement conferences to be held tomorrow and Thursday in Poughkeepsie and Albany.

The conferences are sponsored by the Joint Legislative Committee on Interstate Cooperation, of which Assemblyman Harold C. Osborn is chairman. They are part of a statewide study, mandated by the 1946 session of the Legislature, to determine the extent of pollution in New York waterways and to formulate corrective measures.

The Poughkeepsie conference will be held from 1 to 5 p. m. tomorrow at the Nelson House, and will be preceded by an inspection tour of the Hudson river near Poughkeepsie by members of the pollution-abatement committee and local officials. While the meeting is open to the public, special invitations have been sent out to a total of 450 mayors, supervisors, representatives of industry, civic, conservation groups and others in eight mid-Hudson counties.

The Albany conference will be held from 1 to 5 p. m. Thursday at the Hotel Ten Eyck. Special invitations have been extended to 333 officials and others in the seven counties comprising the Albany district for this conference. At both conferences the aid and cooperation of all groups will be sought in developing a pollution-abatement program.

He Gets 'Em Wholesale

Grand Island, Neb. (AP)—Frank Wilcox, for 34 years a local creamery employee, finally got around to eating his first ice cream cone the other day. He liked it so well he ate four more in short order.

Back at Him

Independence, Mo., Nov. 20 (AP)—A motorist was arrested on a charge of driving backward down the street. He told Patrolman Paul Lebow that the driver of another car going in the opposite direction had shouted an insult at him. Rather than risk losing the man, he said he began a backward pursuit.

He didn't catch the other driver.

Lost Location

Portland, Ore., Nov. 20 (AP)—City Commissioner Fred L. Peterson said Portland has a street which could properly be called Shangri La.

A resident of a four-block long street complained to him that lack of street name plates on the corners stymied the sale of her house.

Despite carefully worded directions, she declared, prospective buyers who responded to her newspaper ads never could find the street.

She's been trying to sell the house for two years.

False Alarm

"UNBLOCK" your DIGESTIVE TRACT

And Stop Dosing Your Stomach With Soda and Alkalizers

Don't expect to get real relief from headache, indigestion, gas and bad breath by taking soda and other alkalizers if the true cause of your trouble is constipation.

In this case, your real trouble is not in the stomach at all. But in the intestinal tract where 80% of your food is digested. And when the lower part gets blocked food may fail to digest properly.

What you want for real relief is something to "unblock" your lower intestinal tract. Something to clean it out effectively—helps nature get back on her feet.

Get Carter's Pills right now. Take them as directed. They gently and effectively "unblock" your digestive tract. This permits all 3 of Nature's own digestive juices to mix better with your food.

Jamestown Invites U.N.

Jamestown, N. Y., Nov. 20 (AP)—The Jamestown Chamber of Commerce has invited the United Nations to select a permanent headquarters site here or in the vicinity of Chautauque Lake. The board of directors yesterday instructed Secretary Daniel F. Lincoln to send Trygve Lie, U.N. secretary general, a 20-page illustrated booklet describing the area and extending the invitation.

Jenner Is in Familiar Role

New Indiana Senator Has Experience in Legislative Body

By WILLIAM L. MADIGAN

Indianapolis, Nov. 20 (AP)—Indiana's new Republican senator, William E. Jenner, has had considerable experience in a legislative body controlled by his party when the chief executive was of the opposite political faith.

Thirty-eight-year-old Jenner was majority leader in the State Senate when a Democrat was governor in 1941. He pushed through a "ripper" program aimed at stripping the governor of almost all of his executive power, but it was invalidated by the State Supreme Court.

Eleven years ago, as a freshman senator, Jenner led the attack on the administration of Gov. Paul V. McNutt, his one-time law professor at Indiana University. Quick-tempered and dynamic, he once tossed a heavy law book across the State Senate chamber at a Democratic antagonist.

Re-elected to the State Senate in 1938, he advanced to majority leadership in 1941. He suffered his lone political setback in 1940. When a state convention rejected his bid for the governorship nomination.

Entering the army in 1942, he was sent to a hospital two years later with a serious eye infection. While still a patient he was nominated in 1944 for a short term in the U. S. Senate, filling a vacancy caused by the death of Democratic Senator Frederick Van Nuys. Jenner, a captain in the air forces at the time, was elected by a 51,000 plurality.

After two months in Washington, he came back home to serve as legislative liaison man for the newly elected Gov. Ralph F. Gates. At the end of the session Jenner was rewarded by being named state chairman.

He resigned in March of this year to seek the G.O.P. nomination for senator against Raymond E. Willis.

Willis had faithfully followed the straight Republican line during his six years in Washington and wanted to succeed himself. But Jenner held binding commitments from the powerful state organization. Shortly before convention delegates began their voting, Willis withdrew. Jenner smothered his only opponent, Rep. Charles M. LaFollette of Evansville.

Jenner campaigned largely in generalities and did not attack his Democratic opponent. Former Governor M. Clifford Townsend He stumped the state from Lake Michigan to the Ohio river. He spoke sixty times, criticizing the Truman administration, assailing Communism and calling for a repudiation of New Deal policies.

Jenner's platform technique is a mixture of colloquialism and razor-edged sarcasm.

Against the advice of older party heads, he spoke out two days before election against government by "pressure groups." He asked labor to abandon its policy of "rewarding its friends and punishing its enemies solely on the basis of their votes on labor legislation." His campaign speech left the way clear for him to vote for almost any labor control legislation.

Married and the father of a four-year-old son, Billy, the senator-elect and his strikingly attractive blond wife, Janet, live in Bedford.

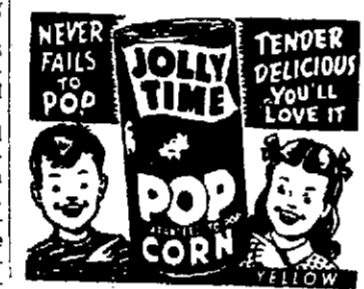

Dobbs Ferry Man Killed

New York, Nov. 20 (AP)—A man identified from papers as William Wallace Allen, 55 of Dobbs Ferry, N. Y., was injured fatally last night, police reported, when he walked into the side of a trailer truck on First avenue between 40th and 41st streets. Police said the driver of the trailer apparently was unaware of the accident and failed to stop.

Scout Committee Holds Important Meeting With Miss Metcalf

The Kingston District Committee of the Ulster County Girl Scout Council met at the home of Mrs. Charles Davis, Plymouth avenue, Monday evening. In addition to the regular business of the evening, plans were discussed for a very interesting program to be given in connection with "Scouts' Week" at the Kingston High School Sunday afternoon at 3:30 p. m., to which the general public is invited. The committee enjoyed a half hour training course under the direction of Miss Hazel Metcalf, new Ulster county executive, during which the various duties of the committee members were explained and apportioned. The next of the training course series will be given by Miss Metcalf of the Girl Scout office, Crown and John streets, January 7. There are to be various training courses under the direction of the Kingston District Committee, which will be set before the public in the near future.

The next meeting of the Kingston District Committee will be held January 14 at 8 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Max Chirlin, 320 Main street. No meeting will be held in December due to the holiday season.

The Girl Scout offices on Crown and John streets will be open to any one interested or for any problems which might arise, from 1 to 5 p. m. Mondays to Thursdays, 1 to 8 p. m. Fridays and 9 a. m. to 12 noon Saturdays. Either Miss Metcalf, executive director or her secretary, Miss Madeline Berg, will be in attendance.

Mrs. Lillian Bennett has been designated public relations representative on the Kingston District Committee, in charge of general publicity. All Girl Scout leaders and members of the Kingston District Committee are asked to cooperate by telephoning any publicity to her from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. at 3964 and between 7 and 10 p. m. at 1063-J.

Krstovich-Hoy Nuptials in Catskill

Miss Margery Jean Hoy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Hoy, Jr., 15 Summit avenue, Catskill, became the bride of Nicholas C. Krstovich, Catskill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Krstovich, Catskill, Sunday at 1 p. m. in St. Patrick's Church, Catskill. The Rev. Joseph E. Delaney performed the double ring ceremony.

Peter DiFucci was organist and Mrs. Philip Reilly sang, "Ave Maria." The church was decorated with chrysanthemums.

The bride was escorted by her brother, Joseph D. Hoy, 3rd. She wore a satin gown appliqued with lace and made with a sweetheart neckline and lace yoke. Her veil of illusion was caught to a crown of orange blossoms. She carried white lilies.

Mrs. Dorothy Hoy Alsie, sister of the bride as matron of honor wore flame velvet and carried purple chrysanthemums. The bridesmaids wore gowns of velvet, bodices and full skirts. Mrs. Kathryn Hoy Izzo of Catskill, sister of the bride, in forest green; Miss Catherine Glennon, Catskill, cousin of the bride, in lime; Mrs. James Deitz, Cementon, sister of the bridegroom, in aqua. All wore maroon hats.

Mark Krstovich of Catskill was best man for his brother. Ushers were Dominick Izzo, brother-in-law of the bride; Victor Krstovich, brother of the bridegroom; and Romeo Ginesina of this city.

A reception for 150 guests was held at the Saulpaugh Hotel. Mr. and Mrs. Krstovich left on a wedding trip to Miami Beach, Fla. For traveling the bride chose a beige fox trimmed suit with black accessories. They will make their home in Catskill.

The bride attended St. Patrick's School in Catskill and the bridegroom attended school in Cementon.

Party For A Visitor

Dear Mrs. Post: How shall we go about giving a party for a young girl who is visiting our clergyman and his wife? We, the younger people of the church, (none of whom has yet met the visitor) would like to give a dance in her honor. But how shall we go about telling the girl about our plans for her, and will it be all right to send a young man who hasn't met her to the house to drive her to the dance?

Answer: First of all, I think you'd better consult the clergyman and his wife and see that they approve. If they do, they will very certainly be willing to make arrangements to see that your party is a success.

Possibly they themselves will accompany her. Then a group of you together can see her home, but don't send a young man alone.

Out of Town Guests

Dear Mrs. Post: When inviting guests from out of town to an anniversary celebration, are we supposed to put them up at a hotel at our expense, or make provision for them in the house of friends?

Answer: While not your obligation to pay their hotel bills, you should, of course, look after your guests in whatever way is possible for you.

Second Child Named Junior

Dear Mrs. Post: I am expecting a second child soon. The first, a boy, died soon after birth and was named for his father. If this second baby is a boy, would there be any objection to naming him for his father?

Answer: There would be no propriety in fact, it would be unusual. The question is entirely one of your own feelings.

Is a man expected to give his seat on a bus or streetcar to a strange woman? The answer is found in Mrs. Post's leaflet, "Manners on the Street," obtainable for a 3-cent stamped, self-addressed envelope sent to the Kingston Daily Freeman, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York, 19, N. Y.

SHE IS STILL "MRS. JOHN"

A letter asks: "In a hospital a married woman is registered as Mrs. Mary Blank. Therefore, isn't it better to send a message to her, while there, to Mrs. Mary Blank?"

Even though "Mrs. Mary" is operated on, socially she is "Mrs. John." As a matter of fact, the hospital keeps both names on file.

Party For A Visitor

Dear Mrs. Post: How shall we go about giving a party for a young girl who is visiting our clergyman and his wife? We, the younger people of the church, (none of whom has yet met the visitor) would like to give a dance in her honor. But how shall we go about telling the girl about our plans for her, and will it be all right to send a young man who hasn't met her to the house to drive her to the dance?

Answer: First of all, I think you'd better consult the clergyman and his wife and see that they approve. If they do, they will very certainly be willing to make arrangements to see that your party is a success.

Possibly they themselves will accompany her. Then a group of you together can see her home, but don't send a young man alone.

Out of Town Guests

Dear Mrs. Post: When inviting guests from out of town to an anniversary celebration, are we supposed to put them up at a hotel at our expense, or make provision for them in the house of friends?

Answer: While not your obligation to pay their hotel bills, you should, of course, look after your guests in whatever way is possible for you.

Second Child Named Junior

Dear Mrs. Post: I am expecting a second child soon. The first, a boy, died soon after birth and was named for his father. If this second baby is a boy, would there be any objection to naming him for his father?

Answer: There would be no propriety in fact, it would be unusual. The question is entirely one of your own feelings.

Is a man expected to give his seat on a bus or streetcar to a strange woman? The answer is found in Mrs. Post's leaflet, "Manners on the Street," obtainable for a 3-cent stamped, self-addressed envelope sent to the Kingston Daily Freeman, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York, 19, N. Y.

Lowell Club Urged to Support V. of A. Drive; Hears Papers

Mrs. Mary Z. Chidester, member of the advisory group to the Veterans of America, urged members of the Lowell Literary Club to support the Veterans' current drive for funds at the meeting of the club Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. John B. Steketee, 198 Washington avenue.

Mrs. Chidester also gave the first paper for the day on "The Fever Bark Trees," which told the story of quinine. She reviewed the history of malaria from the time of Alexander, the Great, who died of the fever. The fever had various names such as black fever, and ague and Spanish in Peru, South America, discovered that the bark of certain trees would relieve and prevent the disease. It was not until 100 years later in 1865 that some of this bark was taken to Europe where it created a stir in the medical profession of France and Spain. The bark was found in the cinchona trees which are found in Peru, Bolivia and Colombia, South America, and which today is used in making quinine.

Mrs. William Longyear gave a paper on Arizona and showed colored slides of the scenic places of that state. She also presented each member with a copy of a magazine called, "Arizona Highways," which contained many colored pictures.

The next meeting of the club will be December 3 with Miss Mary Hale, 13 Orchard street.

Reds Ban Radio Broadcasts From Moscow Stations

Moscow, Nov. 20 (AP)—The Soviet Union no longer will allow United States and other foreign correspondents to make radio broadcasts from Moscow.

This was made known yesterday in a note given by the Columbia Broadcasting System by the Press Department of the Russian Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

The note said that because of "overburdening of the radio stations" here the government had withdrawn "temporary" broadcasting privileges given "two or three correspondents" in wartime when "other means of communication were difficult."

Foreign radio correspondents still may work in Russia but, like news agency and newspaper correspondents, must transmit stories by telegraph, the memorandum added.

Richard C. Hottelet has been full-time Moscow correspondent for CBS. Two newsmen have worked part time as correspondents for two other U. S. radio networks—Edmunds Stevens for the American Broadcasting Company and Robert Magidoff for the National Broadcasting Company.

They had beamed news broadcasts to the U. S. free of charge by short wave on regular schedules of Moscow radio's English language programs. The first were denied use of the facilities October 7.

(On November 8, CBS asked the U. S. State Department to try to induce the U.S.S.R. to lift the ban then already in effect, and Edward R. Murrow, the network's vice president, called Prime Minister Stalin that CBS would withdraw Hottelet if the new policy stood.)

(ABC at the same time cabled Lt. Gen. Walter Bedell Smith, U. S. ambassador to Russia, to ask him to attempt to permit resumption of the broadcasts.)

SUPPOSE YOUR NEIGHBOR didn't have a telephone—

You'd let him take a call on yours, wouldn't you?

Of course you would.

Sharing available telephone facilities by means of party-line service enables several families to use the same line. It has made it possible for us to install a telephone in many homes in your community that otherwise would still be without.

Sharing is especially important at this time when there is a shortage of central office equipment. That's why, for the time being, party-line residence service is the only type available in most communities. For the same reason, we cannot give an individual line to our present party-line customers.

Our factories are working at top speed to produce the apparatus we need to make telephone service better than ever before. Meanwhile, the facilities now on hand must continue to be shared so that others may enjoy the conveniences of a telephone.

NEW YORK TELEPHONE COMPANY

Baseball Meeting Gains Attention

West Coast Parley Is Two Weeks Away; Lane Is Signed

New York, Nov. 20 (AP)—With the major-league meetings scheduled to be held in Los Angeles only two weeks away, baseball men are making the headlines.

Most interesting bit of news emanated from Chicago yesterday when the announcement that the Kansas City Blues and former manager of the Cincinnati Reds, Jimmie Collins, a veteran of 23 years in professional baseball, will manage the San Diego Padres of the Pacific Coast League.

Brown, pre-war Cardinal infielder, was appointed manager of the Indianapolis Indians in the American Association. He succeeds Bill Burwell. Brown last year played with the Pittsburgh Pirates, who have a working agreement with the Indians.

A couple of well known diamond notables, Warren C. Giles and Gerald P. Nugent, took over new jobs. Giles, general manager and vice-president of the Reds, was named president of the club by the board of directors. He succeeds Powell Crosby, Jr., principal stockholder and chairman of the board. Nugent, former head of the Philadelphia Phillies, was appointed president of the Cubs of the Interstate League.

MacPhail Issues Edict

On the local front President Larry MacPhail, president of the New York Yankees, yesterday issued an edict that every one of his players must be X-rayed before spring training.

The order followed the discovery that Joe DiMaggio, Yankees star outfielder, has bursitis in each shoulder and an ailment in one of his heels. DiMaggio, a native of California, is spending the off-season in New York, taking treatments from a local doctor.

The Brooklyn Dodgers announced that Leo Durocher was due to arrive early today from the west coast for a conference with President Branch Rickey. Despite Rickey's recent assertion that he has several candidates under advisement, it is taken for granted that Leo will be reappointed manager of the club no later than next Monday.

Giants to Get Fielders

The New York Giants' biggest headache was eased a bit with the disclosure that outfielders Carroll (Whitey) Lockman and Clint Hartung, now in the U. S. Army, will be released in the very near future. It was the wretched play of the outfielders that caused Manager Mel Ott his biggest headache last year.

Lockman, who hit .341 in 32 games for the Giants in 1945 before joining the army, advised President Horace Stoneham of the Giants he had arrived in San Francisco from Japan and expected to receive his discharge within a week or ten days on top of that. Hartung, touted slugger purchased from Minneapolis last year, is due to receive his release early in January. Hartung is 24 years old, four years Lockman's senior.

Munn Works for Lions

Syracuse, N. Y., Nov. 20 (AP)—Coach Biggie Munn is seeking to keep his Syracuse football team at fighting pitch for Saturday's season closer against Columbia at New York. Munn is stressing defense in practice. The Orangemen are expected to be rated as underdogs against the shifty Light Blue which has a bevy of speedy backs.

Kingston's newly formed female all-star aggregation was impressive in an easy victory over the L.B.M. of Poughkeepsie. The locals open their road schedule next Sunday in Albany against the pick of the capital city.

CORRECTION DEPARTMENT: In Saturday's "Pocket" we queried about the formation of an Ulster County American Legion basketball league. . . . Bill Murray, county adjutant called us quickly on the faux pas and we are happy to make the correction. . . . The county Legion league has organized and will be guided by Nick Marone, one of Highland's many sports-minded Marones.

ORCHIDS that come better late than never. Tom Murphy of Bob's Auto Parts in the City Minor League is credited with cleaning up the "Big Four" or "double pinocle" split this season. . . . It's a rare bowling feat and will be registered with the publicity department of the American Bowling Congress. . . . Pete Greco, now in Ellenville, turned the trick several years ago at the old Colonial alleys on North Front street, while "Goggy" Boyce repeated a couple of years back.

U.C.L.A. Holds Best Offensive Record; Notre Dame Second

Boston College Is Dropped to Third Place; Army Still Rates as No. 1 Team of U.S.

New York, Nov. 20 (AP)—The best offensive record in college football is owned today by the all-victorious Bruins of U.C.L.A., who stake their claim to the Pacific Coast Conference championship and their hopes for a Rose Bowl berth on Saturday's struggle with Southern California.

Statistics announced by the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau show that the Bruins jumped from third to first place among the nation's offensive leaders by rolling up a combined total of 652 yards in their 61-7 rout of Montana last week, 387 of them on the ground.

In brushing aside eight opponents so far this season, U.C.L.A. has covered a total of 3,279 yards on both running plays and forward passes for an average gain of 409.9 yards per game.

Notre Dame, which last week shared the top spot with Boston College, slipped to second place with an average of 399.6 yards per game, although the Irish piled up 418 yards in their 27-0 triumph over Northwestern.

These figures from the official service bureau of the National Collegiate Athletic Association indicate busy times ahead for the Trojans of Southern Cal. who run smack into Notre Dame a week after their U.C.L.A. engagement.

First in History

If U.C.L.A., which sports the

offensive lead for the first time this year, can protect it through the season, it will be the first Pacific Coast team in the bureau's history to win that honor.

The Eagles of Boston College, who gained 314 yards to Tennessee's 116 despite their 33-13 loss to the Vols, dropped to third place with an average of 334.7 yards per game.

All-victorious Georgia piled up 469 yards in blanketing Auburn, 41-0, to skip from sixth to fourth place with an average of 375.1 yards per game, dropping Nevada to fifth on an average of 311.1.

Although Notre Dame lost ground in the battle for total offensive honors, the Irish regained the lead in the rushing department, moving up from second position to replace Detroit, which dropped to third.

The Irish, who also stand second to Penn State in total defense, have averaged 302.3 yards per game on their running plays in seven contests.

Hardin-Simmons moved from fourth to second in rushing with an average of 295.8 yards per game, followed by Detroit with 277.1. U.C.L.A. with 276.8 and Utah with 263.5.

Army, still unbeaten and recognized as the nation's No. 1 team, is no better than tenth in both rushing and total offense.

Mosconi Holds Lead

Cleveland, Nov. 20 (AP)—Willie Mosconi of Barrington, Ill., world pocket billiards titleholder, held a 3,000 to 2,134 lead, N. Y. today. Mosconi increased his margin by taking straight blocks yesterday to make a clean sweep of their three-day stay in Cleveland. The final chapter in the 3,750-point championship tour will be fought out in Chicago.

In the Middle Ages, lutes, zithers and other instruments were part of a barber shop's furnishings to amuse waiting customers.

In The Pocket

with CHARLIE TIANO

They introduced a new style of basketball Saturday night at the municipal auditorium. It was billed as professional, but the razzle-dazzle four-alarm-fire style of play flashed by "Turk" Karm's worthies resembled the pro basketball of "Pop" Morgenweck's era about as closely as Orville Wright's first airplane compared to a B-29.

This brilliant, harum-scarum, offensive style of play may bring tears to the eyes of the old pro purists who worshipped play-making and set-shooting. These youngsters run all night long, shoot from any part of the court and pile up points in a fashion that must seem shameful to the old defensive-minded pros.

It's the trend in basketball throughout the pro leagues of the country. Fans want to see high scoring games in the 60s and 70s and they're getting them. The Chiefs will give Kingston a goodly share of them.

TODAY'S BULLETIN: Is not a bulletin but the old gag about the Navy chaplain who was telling a group of hardened gobs, "I see good in all things." To which a sailor in the rear said, "Can you see good in a fog?"

GOLDEN BOY AND FAIR LADY of the week were Phil Masters and Evelyn Dolson. . . . Masters rattled the uprigths for a 251 single and 632 series in the Central Major, while Miss Dolson, an old hand at crashing headlines, knocked off a rousing 231 and 590 in the Emerick's Ladies' League, second best female triple of the campaign.

WITH THE SCORING LEADERS: Rose Schatzel at it again with 225 and 563 in the Colonial Women's loop. . . . Other highspots were Marge Van Alstyne's 514, Ev Moore's 527, Arlene Van Buren's 526, Marge Anderson 520 and Charlotte Lapine 507. . . . Etta Ginder's 524 was runnerup in the Emerick's Ladies'. . . In the male department, Jimmy "5-9" Raymond clicked for a 244 single in the Federation circuit, while Ed Sohm's 565 topped the Midnight loop. . . . Roland Post's 574 sparked the Independent kegglers. . . . Others in the top bracket, John Ferraro 606 and "Hod" Spaulding 600 in the Major; Lou Guadagnola 232-613 in the Central Rec and Jack Singer 594 in the Good Neighbor.

Way back in the pre-historic era of this year's City League schedule, Jack Haulenbeck of the Central Hudson squad blasted a 665 on the Immanuel drives. . . . It's a City League record but somehow or other was forgotten in the shuffle. . . . "Ace" Ferraro led last week's City League firing with 241 and 624. . . . Of monumental interest was the news that Jake's Restaurant succeeded in taking a game from Pete Keresman's power-packed Colonials. . . . That, they tell us, is quite an accomplishment in these days of high pressure bowling.

FLOTSAM AND JETSAM

The Newburgh News basketball clinic conducted by Wesley "Bo" Gill features Clair Bee and Pat Kennedy, names to be remembered in the basketball realm. . . . Observers insist Dick Talarico's triumph over Carmine Virgilia in Poughkeepsie was no fluke. . . . We won't be convinced until we see the rematch. . . . Cauliflower addicts about town still buzzing over Tommy Baker's sensational kayo of Roosevelt Flagg. . . . The forthcoming Tony Burrone-Jack Keough encounter should be a honey. . . . We pick Burrone.

HUDSON VALLEY ROUNDUP: The "Lost Week-end" Kingston kegglers experienced last week was thrown back into the face of Newburgh's potent Paladines in this week-end. . . . Van Kleebe knocked off the Colonials in a 2-0 sweep Sunday. . . . "The Ace" was on his game with 703, first 700 of the season in the loop. . . . Harold Broskie, who seems to have his proclivities for "arm balls" and "old balls" crashed a 682. . . . Tony Mack, generally regarded as Newburgh's best, hasn't hit a decent series in Kingston in six years. . . . For our dough, the best kegler in Newburgh today is youthful Al Crisci.

Kingston's newly formed female all-star aggregation was impressive in an easy victory over the L.B.M. of Poughkeepsie. The locals open their road schedule next Sunday in Albany against the pick of the capital city.

CORRECTION DEPARTMENT: In Saturday's "Pocket" we queried about the formation of an Ulster County American Legion basketball league. . . . Bill Murray, county adjutant called us quickly on the faux pas and we are happy to make the correction. . . . The county Legion league has organized and will be guided by Nick Marone, one of Highland's many sports-minded Marones.

ORCHIDS that come better late than never. Tom Murphy of Bob's Auto Parts in the City Minor League is credited with cleaning up the "Big Four" or "double pinocle" split this season. . . . It's a rare bowling feat and will be registered with the publicity department of the American Bowling Congress. . . . Pete Greco, now in Ellenville, turned the trick several years ago at the old Colonial alleys on North Front street, while "Goggy" Boyce repeated a couple of years back.

U.C.L.A. Holds Best Offensive Record; Notre Dame Second

Boston College Is Dropped to Third Place; Army Still Rates as No. 1 Team of U.S.

New York, Nov. 20 (AP)—The best offensive record in college football is owned today by the all-victorious Bruins of U.C.L.A., who stake their claim to the Pacific Coast Conference championship and their hopes for a Rose Bowl berth on Saturday's struggle with Southern California.

Statistics announced by the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau show that the Bruins jumped from third to first place among the nation's offensive leaders by rolling up a combined total of 652 yards in their 61-7 rout of Montana last week, 387 of them on the ground.

In brushing aside eight opponents so far this season, U.C.L.A. has covered a total of 3,279 yards on both running plays and forward passes for an average gain of 409.9 yards per game.

Notre Dame, which last week shared the top spot with Boston College, slipped to second place with an average of 399.6 yards per game, although the Irish piled up 418 yards in their 27-0 triumph over Northwestern.

These figures from the official service bureau of the National Collegiate Athletic Association indicate busy times ahead for the Trojans of Southern Cal. who run smack into Notre Dame a week after their U.C.L.A. engagement.

First in History

If U.C.L.A., which sports the

offensive lead for the first time this year, can protect it through the season, it will be the first Pacific Coast team in the bureau's history to win that honor.

The Eagles of Boston College, who gained 314 yards to Tennessee's 116 despite their 33-13 loss to the Vols, dropped to third place with an average of 334.7 yards per game.

All-victorious Georgia piled up 469 yards in blanketing Auburn, 41-0, to skip from sixth to fourth place with an average of 375.1 yards per game, dropping Nevada to fifth on an average of 311.1.

Although Notre Dame lost ground in the battle for total offensive honors, the Irish regained the lead in the rushing department, moving up from second position to replace Detroit, which dropped to third.

The Irish, who also stand second to Penn State in total defense, have averaged 302.3 yards per game on their running plays in seven contests.

Independent League

The Stone Ridge Firemen entered into a first place tie with Callanans Monday evening in the Independent League by taking a pair of games from jumps while Callanans were being dumped twice by Cole's Market. Both clubs have won 20 and lost 13.

F. Schryver and Ray Cord paced the Firemen to victory with 530 and 515 triples. Schryver rolled a high single of 221. C. Davis' 184 and 479 were high for jumps.

Despite a 587 triple by Orr Van Alstyne, Callanans were defeated twice by Coles. Milt Cole posted a 521 triple for the winners and Parslow hit a 203 single. Ed Ougheltree also had a 519 for Coles.

Ward DuBois and Roland Post featured the Wilber Coal-Martins Market match with each blasting a 4-0 triple. Wilbers took a pair, however. DuBois slammed out a 587 triple, 219 and 206 for 610 while Post cracked the maples for 200, 237 and 169 for 606. Ray DuBois had a 555 for Wilbers while Harry Wilber hit 530, Hayes 514 and Brown 501. Hayes also had a 217 solo game. Jack Hartman and W. Davis followed Post with 573 and 509.

Belcherts upset Vogels twice to stop the latter from going into a first place tie. Kubieck cracked a high 212 single and Henry posted a high 212 single. Marks had 521 and Henry hit 510. Leo Everett's 213 and 598 were high for Vogels. Charlie Gruenewald's 555 and Barney Rosinski's 551 were high for Vogels.

Local Boxers Fight In Poughkeepsie Ring Thursday Evening

'Kid' Hawks Will Oppose Eddie Morton in Main Feature at Lincoln Center Gym

Another card of amateur boxing bouts is scheduled Thursday night for the Lincoln Center Gym in Poughkeepsie where the main feature will bring together Paul "Kid" Hawks and Eddie Morton, Albany welterweight. Both boys are action fighters and a fast bout is expected.

Four Kingston boxers also are slated on the seven-bout card including Barney Emberson, Eddie Albright and Bob Bowers and Bob DeGroat. In Emberson's last appearance in Poughkeepsie he scored a quick knockout and then gained a popular decision over Phil Talorino of Utica in the Kingston ring.

In early experiments, frog skin was used for human skin grafts.

C.I.O. Hits Coal Order by U.S.

November issue of their "economic outlook" to the convention delegates. The publication said industry's insatiable appetite for profits had served to change the character of national income received by capital and labor.

The publication said that in the war years, 67.7 per cent of the national income was paid to wage and salary earners, but in the first eight months of 1946 it was only 62.6 per cent.

The prediction of $7,700,000,000 available to manufacturers for wage increases in 1947 was expected at $15,000,000,000. An assumption was made that a "reasonable" profit, after taxes, would be $3,000,000,000. If $7,700,000,000 were paid in wage increases, $7,800,000,000 would remain, and taxes on that sum at 35 per cent would be about $2,500,000,000 leaving the "reasonable" profit of five billion.

C.I.O. economists made their own estimates after collecting available figures from government and private sources.

Speculation Arises

With the convention itself plodding through a mass of resolutions—which no one objected to on which many orated—there came last night a terrific gust of speculation and rumors in the hotel corridors and bars. The speculation was about:

Wage demands. A story went around that the "Big Three" unions would seek about 20 cents an hour. Another guess today, calculated by reporters on the basis of C.I.O. figures on the cost-of-living rise and the decline of weekly factory earnings, was that the demand would be 26 or 27 per cent. This figure had excellent statistical grounds—the only trouble was that the final decision may not be based on statistics only.

General Eisenhower. He was to address the convention today. Because some C.I.O. delegates look favorably on him, and have said so in conversations, the notion grew that some sections of labor might ask him to run for president in 1948 as Democratic candidate. Responsible C.I.O. leaders said this is "just idle talk."

John L. Lewis. Delegates here asked each other over and over what Lewis and the government would do in the tense coal dispute. They didn't claim to know.

Application Granted

County Judge John M. Cashin has granted an application by the elders and deacons of the Reformed Protestant Dutch Church of Cline, Esopus, town of Esopus at Ulster Park to sell the parsonage property to Eugene Brossard and Earl F. Campbell for the sum of $6,500 and also to sell the community hall to Ulster Grange, No. 969, P. of H., for the sum of $2,500.

Only Enough Coal For Public Welfare

New York, Nov. 20 (AP)—John D. Small, civilian production administrator, says if soft coal mining ends tonight there will be coal available in emergency stock piles created by the government "freeze" of stocks to fill only "the most urgent needs affecting public health and safety."

He told a meeting of the National Industrial Conference Board last night that "none of this coal can be given to industry, except in the rare cases to permit the orderly closing of plants whose facilities would otherwise be damaged."

Small called on the nation to "stand ready now to conserve x x x coal stocks in every way possible."

Lewis Must Decide What He Will Do

In seeking to block an injunction. Rescinding the notice of contract termination—the notice which in the past has always served as a tacit but automatic strike call.

In the face of Lewis' silence, typical miner reaction was voiced by Sam Caddy, president of U.M.W. District 30 in the big Sandy field in Kentucky, where an estimated 13,000 out of 15,000 workers were idle.

"They know the move is on," he said.

In Pittsburgh, John Caster, a union official, said the miners had received "all the instruction they needed" and could be expected to stage a mass walkout today.

Reports from the coal fields told of mounting tension among the miners.

'Silent' Shutdown

But if a strike was inevitable, all signs pointed to a "silent" shutdown, with no surface signs of violence. The War Department talk of troops drew from individual miners' their traditional retort: "You can't mine coal with bayonets."

President Truman, vacationing at Key West, Fla., was following developments and was also keenly alert to editorial and public reaction. Secretary Charles G. Ross said Mr. Truman was "very pleased" over what he termed the "vigorous" public support of his decision to fight Lewis to a finish.

But some high officials here were concerned that the administration might be in for a long and tempestuous struggle.

One official said privately the feeling in the coal industry was that it might take six months to a year "to break Lewis," as he put it, and bring the miners back to work.

Might Start Strike

This official said it was possible that if Lewis were thrown into jail, it might touch off a nationwide general strike, with the American Federation of Labor's 1,150,000 members and the Congress of Industrial Organization's 6,000,000 rallying to his support.

He said it was hardly possible, too, that the government might "freeze" Lewis' strike chest, estimated at $13,500,000. But he said, he knew of no immediate move in that direction.

A possible economic "sword of Damocles" over the miners is the government's ownership of the "big inch" and "little inch" pipelines built during the war to move petroleum from Texas fields to the east.

Has Been Fighting Pipelines

The miners union has been fighting against possible use of the pipelines for natural gas, which would compete with coal. Up to this time it has had the War and Navy Departments on its side.

But in the midst of the coal crisis, War Assets Administrator Robert M. Littlejohn told the House Surplus Property Committee yesterday that the armed services have withdrawn their objections to letting the pipes be used for gas. He also disclosed he has rejected as too low all 16 bids for the $147,000,000 lines, but will ask for new bids within a few days.

Two Bodies Found

St. Simons, Ga., Nov. 20 (AP)—The bodies of two persons who lost their lives when the 85-foot schooner Tondelayo, en route to the Southwest Pacific, went aground and broke up off Blackward Island, were recovered today, the coast guard reported.

Two survivors, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Slenzak of Detroit, Mich., were found on the island late yesterday by coast guardsmen after a seaplane and blimp search of the area. Two others are still missing.

About the Folks

Miss Jeanne Hudler of Albany avenue extension is a patient at the Kingston Hospital where she underwent an operation Tuesday.

Fifth Man Held In Death of G.O.P. District Captain

New York, Nov. 20 (AP)—A fifth man was held in high bail today as a material witness in the fatal election day slugging of Joseph Scattereggio, Republican district captain, who was beaten while en route to a polling place.

The man was identified by Assistant District Attorney Jacob Grumet as Joseph Ferraiolo, 34-year-old cleaner in the Department of Welfare.

He was arraigned yesterday and held in $25,000 bail. Two of the other men in custody are held in $25,000 bail and the remaining two in $20,000 bail.

Grumet told General Sessions Judge James Garrett Wallace that Ferraiolo, who had been questioned repeatedly by the district attorney's office, had "vital information" in the case.

It was reported that Ferraiolo was with Scattereggio when the latter was attacked and that he possibly could identify the assailants.

Scattereggio was a campaign worker for Frederick V. P. Bryan, who was defeated in the 18th Congressional District by Rep. Vito Marcantonio, American Labor-Democratic Party incumbent.

Marcantonio appeared yesterday before a grand jury investigating the slaying and said afterward he had been asked to appear again next Tuesday.

He declined comment on his questioning, declaring he had been instructed by the jury foreman not to make a statement.

Marcantonio had left a sickbed to appear before the grand jury. District Attorney Frank S. Hogan was asked if "the case still has a political aspect," and replied:

"Nothing has come to my attention so far which would suggest any other motive."

No New Milk Bottles Available, Round-up On

In case you are having trouble occasionally in getting your milk deliveries, either at home or at the corner store, you may find that the shortage is due not to lack of milk but to lack of glass bottles.

Even though the war is over, the dairies still cannot get all the bottles they want. Soda ash, important material in glass making, is scarce. A large quantity of the ash usually made into glass is now used in making aluminum. For air conditioning containers widely used for home delivery of milk.

All of this adds up to the fact that there is no substitute for the milk bottle gone A.W.O.L. Making sure that none of the milk bottles you receive are placed on that absent list is the only way the problem can be solved at present.

That old one about putting out the cat and the milk bottle is real. If you can't get your milk, return system from home to dairy is most helpful to storekeeper and home delivery man.

Letter on Trieste

New York, Nov. 20 (AP)—A letter from Soviet Foreign Minister M. Molotov to Italian Ambassador Pietro Quaroni revived talk of the possibility of an agreement between Italy and Yugoslavia to settle the fate of disputed areas. Molotov wrote that Italian envoy to Moscow, who is now in New York, told Russia believes a friendly Rome-Belgrade settlement of the border troubles "will promote the strengthening of peace in Europe."

Picked Up by Vessel

Suva, Fiji Islands, Nov. 20 (AP)—John Caldwell, who left Panama alone in a 30 foot schooner in June, arrived today in a local trading vessel after surviving a hurricane, sailing 36 days with a jury rig, nearly starving and finally smashing his craft on a reef. Caldwell, an American, served with the Australian air force and married an Australian. He is en route to rejoin his wife.

Communists in Lead

Bucharest, Nov. 20 (AP)—The Communist-dominated government bloc took a wide early lead over the opposition today in first returns from Romanian parliamentary election, as each side accuses the other of irregularities.

The U. S. Military Mission in Bucharest was picked last night after 5,000 Romanian citizens appeared to protest that their names had been omitted from the voting register.

Blum Elected

Paris, Nov. 20 (AP)—Former Premier Leon Blum, chief of France's delegation to the United Nations Education, Scientific and Cultural Organization, was unanimously elected president of the first general assembly of UNESCO today. Blum, in his new post, replaces British Chief Delegate D. R. Hardman who earlier was elected temporary chairman.

Child to Reynolds

Hollywood, Nov. 20 (AP)—Blonde Marjorie Reynolds is the mother of a six pound seven ounce daughter, born yesterday at Cedars of Lebanon Hospital. She will be named Linda. The actress is the wife of screen writer Jack Reynolds.

Sentenced Nazis Reported Ailing

Frankfurt, Germany, Nov. 20 (AP)—Three of the seven Nazi leaders sentenced to prison by the International Military Tribunal at Nuremberg are in "seriously bad" physical condition. U. S. Army sources said today.

The names of the ailing prisoners were not disclosed.

All probably will be moved to their new quarters in Berlin's Spandau Prison within two weeks.

The once-proud heads of the wartime leaders have been shaved. Their baldness is covered only by a little black skull cap. They are dressed in dark blue, U. S. Army work clothes with white numbers on the backs.

Rudolf Hess, who spent many days after his conviction lying on the floor of his cell, now has perked up somewhat and occupies most of his time by pacing the floor.

One report which could not be confirmed said he has completely regained his memory which he lost or at least pretended to lose during his trial.

Others sentenced to prison with Hess were former Reich bank President Walter Funk, Grand Adm. Erich Raeder, Grand Adm. Karl Doenitz, Hitler Youth Leader Baldur von Schirach, former Munitions Minister Albert Speer and former Foreign Minister Constantin von Neurath.

Vote to Return to Jobs

San Francisco, Nov. 20 (AP)—C.I.O. Longshoremen and Marine Engineers voted overwhelmingly to go back to their jobs at 8 a. m. (PST) today, but A.F.L. Dock Officers organized picketing beginning at 6 a. m. to protect our interests" while they vote on contract terms offered by shipowners.

Thus, the end of the 50-day-old Pacific coast waterfront tieup was delayed at least until Saturday.

Carl G. May, president of the A.F.L. union, said the Masters, Mates and Pilots would take a coast-wide vote Thursday but the count would not be completed before Saturday.

Lieutenant Kills Captain

Frankfurt, Germany, Nov. 20 (AP)—A lieutenant in the U. S. Army military police shot and killed his company commander, a captain, early today, headquarters of U. S. forces in the European theatre announced. The lieutenant then accidentally shot himself in the leg in an ensuing struggle with another officer who had tried to intervene, the announcement said.

The incident occurred at Bebra, near Bassel. No motive for the shooting was given by the announcement. Army officials declined to divulge the names of the officers involved until their families have been notified.

Judge Mandelbaum Dies

New York, Nov. 20 (AP)—Federal Judge Samuel Mandelbaum, 62, died today at his home after a two weeks illness. He was found dead by a chauffeur who called on him each morning since he had been ill. Judge Mandelbaum, a native of Poland, was brought to this country by his parents and lived in the east side area of Manhattan most of his life. In 1936 he was appointed judge for the southern district of New York by the late President Roosevelt, a close friend whom he visited frequently at the White House. He was educated in the New York city public schools and New York University.

Mutton on Menu

Nancy, France, Nov. 20 (AP)—There was mutton on the menu for meat-famished Frenchmen around Ohrbach today, ninety-five sheep escaped from a pasture, wandered down to a railroad right of way and there bedded down for the night. Came a freight train. Came the dawn — and neighborhood butchers swarmed over the scene cutting up the carcasses of 95 sheep for sale.

Complain About Trials

Manila, Nov. 20 (AP)—Fifteen of 24 American civilian lawyers defending Japanese war crimes suspects here protested today to Secretary of War Patterson that "gross maladministration" is preventing fair trials for the accused.

Albrecht and Lucas Put on Probation; Bogan Changes Plea

Harry Albrecht and Eugene Lucas of Kingston, charged with burglary, third degree, and unlawful entry appeared in County Court this morning for sentence under a plea of guilty to the second count in the indictment, unlawful entry.

Each was sentenced to six months in the county jail and execution of sentence suspended and they were placed on probation. They stated they had been drinking at the time and had secured $16, Judge Cashin as a part of the condition of probation directed that they both attend the church of their choice and that was one of the conditions of probation which would be checked up on.

John Bogan changed a former not guilty plea to one of guilty to grand larceny, second degree, the first charge in the indictment. The second count was dismissed. Francis Martucci appeared for defendant. Bogan stated he had a prior conviction for third degree burglary. He was remanded to the custody of the sheriff until Monday, November 25, at 2 o'clock for sentence.

Court recessed until 2 o'clock, when youthful offender cases will be heard at chambers.

Brooklyn Man, 34 Shot in Accident Near New Paltz

Hunting accidents in Ulster continue to mount as the hunting season progresses. Monday, Vincent Marino, 34, of 1126 50th street, Brooklyn, was accidentally shot by a companion on the Uncle Tom's Farm, owned by Thomas Salliarie, on Route 298, south of New Paltz. Marino and several companions had arrived to hunt small game.

As Salvatore Lenpini, 36, of 2304 East Third street, Brooklyn, was leading his shot gun it accidentally was fired and the charge struck Marino in the right thigh.

Marino was given first aid and taken to Vassar Hospital where his condition is serious. The shooting was investigated by Corporal John Metzger of the Highland State Police sub-station.

General Chu Says U.S. Reactionaries Don't Care Iota

Yenan, Nov. 18 (Delayed) (CP)—Gen. Chu Teh, commander-in-chief of China's Communist armies, charged Chiang Kai-Shek today with "the entire responsibility for national disunity and civil strife and assailed 'American reactionaries' for 'lending him encouragement'."

In an exclusive three-hour interview, the famous guerrilla strategist declared he was preparing for the defense of this Chinese Communist capital for "an important government attack."

General Chu also made these assertions:

"The Communists are not yet prepared to hold a rival Congress in defiance of the National Assembly at Nanking (contrary to a dispatch circulated by the Communist news agency in Nanking.) That between January and June he had demobilized 500,000 Communist troops in keeping with a joint Communist-government army reorganization plan, but they now were in greater strength than ever."

Chu said he and party leaders had decided the demobilization plan, agreed upon in January in Chungking, was a "trap."

"It is regrettable that reactionaries like Henry Luce (Time-Life publisher) and (Senator) Vandenberg (R., Mich.), who don't care one iota for what other peoples suffer or think, should have so much to do with shaping American foreign policy."

"Unless these selfish little men are repudiated by an aroused American public opinion, democracy can never have a chance in China."

Though he was critical of American policy in China, Chu applauded reports that General Marshall, special U.S. envoy, and John Carter Vincent, director of the State Department's Office of Far Eastern Affairs, opposed granting a $300,000,000 loan to China while the country continued under "Chiang Kai-Shek's dictatorship."

"The recent Republican victory doesn't increase the possibility of a more generous policy toward China," Chu said.

Laundry Blast Kills Four, Injures 100 Last Night

Greenville, S. C., Nov. 20 (AP)—A terrific blast, eight blocks from the heart of town and heard 25 miles away, killed at least four persons last night, injured 100 and demolished the Ideal Laundry plant and office building.

Although the fire was under control, searchers still were unable to comb the ruins for an undetermined number of workers believed to have lost their lives in the blast.

Damage was estimated at $500,000 by laundry officials. E. R. Haynie, plant manager, was quoted as saying he detected gas leaking shortly before the explosion and instructed the plant's foreman to cut it off. Haynie said the workers killed must have been returning for their belongings after being warned to leave.

One woman worker's legs were severed when she was blown beneath an automobile and debris. She managed to pull herself from under the car and was taken to a hospital.

'Quonset' Buildings Arrive

The first carload shipment of "Quonset" buildings has arrived at Island Dock, Inc., local dealers. Shown above is the smaller Stran-Steel "Quonset 20" at the George R. Fink farm in Brighton, Michigan, which is used for a utility storage building, where tools, equipment and materials are protected from the winter weather.

Quonset Buildings Will Be Sold by Island Dock, Inc.

Island Dock, Inc. has recently been appointed the exclusive dealer for "Quonset" buildings in Ulster and Greene counties. The "Quonset Hut" was the one big item the United States Navy bought to the tune of 154,000 during the winning of the war in the Pacific. It proved its value on every island hop between here and Tokyo, took more abuse in war than it will ever receive in peace, and proved to be as rugged, durable and flexible as our fighting men themselves.

Now, the "Quonset 40," big brother of the famous "Quonset Hut," is ready for peacetime industry together with other adaptations of the most versatile and economical building ever developed. It is said to be the answer to many of the vital building needs of today.

Kenneth H. Wood, official of Island Dock, Inc., reports that several orders have already been taken for "Quonset" buildings and that the first carload shipment has been unloaded at the Island Dock yards. Erection of these "Quonset" buildings will be made by local building contractors. The Island Dock supplying the materials. Very shortly the familiar shape of the famous "Quonset Hut" will be seen as the first "Quonset" buildings are erected in Kingston and vicinity.

Army Is Mailing Bonds to Yanks

Washington, Nov. 20 (AP)—After weeks of delay, the Army has started mailing out millions of terminal leave bonds to former G.I.s. By Christmas, war department officials said today, it is expected that the bulk of a current backlog of some 4,000,000 claims will have been paid. Most payments are in five-year treasury bonds but cash is used for odd sums.

The Army's delay in mailing bonds since the first applications were received in September was laid to a shortage of envelopes, now ended.

The Navy's disbursing office at Great Lakes, Ill., has been paying navy veterans right along, and has settled more than 500,000 claims. Some G.I.s face an indefinite delay in collecting their share of an estimated $2,700,000,000 voted by congress for accumulated wartime leave, because they have failed to report change of address. Undelivered bonds and checks are returned to army disbursing officers and held until correct addresses are reported.

Wallet Stolen

Frank Pescia of R.F.D. Box 287, Kingston, reported to the police Tuesday afternoon that a brown wallet had been stolen from his automobile while it was parked Friday night on Broadway in front of the Y.M.C.A. The wallet, he said, contained no money but had his discharge papers, chauffeur's license etc. in it.

No Arrests in City

There were no arrests made in the city last night by the police for the sixth consecutive day, and the police court calendar was again clear today. The records at police headquarters show no arrests made since Thursday, November 11.

Woodstock News

Fish, Game Club Chooses Its Officers

Woodstock, Nov. 20—The Woodstock Fish and Game Association held its regular annual meeting in the Town Clerk's Office recently.

Kenneth Wilson was appointed temporary chairman and opened the meeting by calling for the election of officers for the ensuing fiscal year. The following were elected: President, Samuel Gregg; vice president, Ben DeGraff; treasurer, John Peper; secretary, Grant Elwyn.

The treasurer reported a balance in the bank of $581.73.

There was a discussion as to the advisability of posting the lands of the town, which has been done by practically every other Fish and Game Association in the county, limiting hunting and fishing to the members of their associations. Should a resident of Woodstock desire to hunt in a neighboring town he is obliged to join that town's Fish and Game Club and should that particular town have a closed membership, he is not permitted to hunt on their lands. Since Woodstock is not posted, the township is receiving an overflow of hunters from other towns, which has caused the game to become exceedingly scarce, it was reported.

During February, the town will be stocked with 50 swamp rabbits and 150 cottontails.

Future meeting of the organization will be held on the second Monday of each month.

Guest Speaker Tells Home Bureau of Rugs

An unusually interesting meeting of the Home Bureau was held Saturday, at the Methodist Hall, with 21 members and 28 guests present. Mrs. Henry Perrine of Susquehanna, Pa., was the guest speaker.

The luncheon table was colorfully decorated with candles and a centerpiece of several small amber bottles grouped together and filled with calendulas, cornflowers and chrysanthemums. A covered dish luncheon was served.

After luncheon, Mrs. Besse Stowell presented Mrs. Perrine with a Woodstock Home Bureau Cook Book as a token of appreciation.

Mrs. Elizabeth Clough then introduced Mrs. Perrine to the audience. Mrs. Perrine chose as her topic "The Technique of Making Hooked Rugs." She included in her talk, not only the actual making of the rugs, but also emphasized design and color variations. Mrs. Perrine spoke also on the dyeing materials and the method of washing and caring for hooked rugs. The rugs are rever-

O.P.A. Increases Raw Sugar Price

Consumers Will Pay Extra $50,000,000 for Sweet

Washington, Nov. 20 (AP)—O.P.A. increased the price of raw sugar today and notified housewives and other buyers it soon will boost the retail price of the refined product by about a half cent a pound.

The agency estimated the increase will add about $50,000,000 to consumers' annual food bills.

The retail price boost will come when grocers get sugar refined from the higher-cost raw sugar. O.P.A. authorized an increase of 36.5 cents a 100 pounds for raw cane sugar and 40 cents a 100 pounds for semi-refined sugar.

It said the price hike, second in two months, was required under terms of the sugar buying agreement between the Commodity Credit Corporation and the Cuban government covering the 1946 and 1947 Cuban sugar crops. This calls for an increase in the price paid for Cuban sugar in ratio to advances in this country's index of retail food prices.

Van Steenburg Bags 8-Point Deer In Greene County

Abraham Van Steenburg, 20 North street, reported today that he shot 200 pound eight-point buck deer just two minutes after the deer season opened last Friday morning.

Van Steenburg, accompanied by Gene Van Steenburg, 60 Newkirk avenue; Tony Turck, 59 North street and Louis Naccarato, 59 Lansley avenue, bagged his buck near Acra in Greene county.

New York Petition On Milk Control Denied by Court

New York, Nov. 20 (AP)—The Appellate Division, Second Department, has denied New York city's petition for an order vacating a temporary injunction issued September 16 by Supreme Court Justice Charles W. U. Sneed in Westchester county restraining the city health department from enforcing regulations controlling the flow of milk into the metropolitan area.

The court also denied yesterday the city's request for a change of venue from Westchester county to New York county for hearings on a permanent injunction.

The court ruling, however, is not expected to cut appreciably into the city's available milk supply.

On November 8, C. J. Blanford, administrator of the metropolitan milk marketing area, approved an order requiring milk handlers to ship 90 per cent of their output in fluid form to the city and its suburbs.

The order became effective the following day and will terminate on December 31, the normal period of the yearly season of short supply.

The court's ruling gave the city the right to take the decision to the Court of Appeals, the state's highest tribunal, and Charles J. Freus, first assistant corporation counsel, said last night he planned to take an appeal to Albany as soon as he could get it on calendar.

The suit originally was brought by Westchester, and was aimed against a regulation under which City Health Commissioner Israel Weinstein has ordered since July 1 that the six major distributors send 65 per cent of supplies to the New York area, manufacture no heavy cream and give to none of the suburban counties more milk than received in 1944.

Westchester county officials contended the city regulation violated the interstate commerce clause of the constitution.

Mrs. Erickson Convicted In Death of Daughter

New York, Nov. 20 (AP)—An all-male jury last night convicted Mrs. Eva Erickson, 50, of manslaughter in the first degree and assault in the second degree in the death of her three-year old adopted daughter, Susan.

The possible maximum sentence on both convictions is 20 years imprisonment. Mrs. Erickson, who fainted when the verdict was announced, will be sentenced November 30. The jury deliberated three hours.

Mrs. Erickson testified she struck the child on April 25 because of Susan's refusal to eat. Mrs. Erickson's husband, Leif, is free on $2,500 bail on a charge of second degree assault.

Woodstock, Nov. 20—Robert Carlson, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Carlson of Woodstock, is in New York rehearsing with the cast of "Finian's Rainbow," a new musical which will open in Philadelphia, December 9.

There was quite a bit of excitement at the Lake Hill school Monday morning when the first pupil to arrive discovered that a fire near the oil heater had burned a hole through the floor causing the stove to settle. It is thought that there was a small leakage from the stove. However, it has not been determined what caused the fire to become extinguished. Since it was impossible to use the stove in its sunken position school was held at the home of the teacher, Miss Frieda Watson, in Lake Hill.

Miss Gloria Shults spent the week-end with the Arthur Joneses in New York. Eleanor Elwyn had an important role in the Ithaca College production of the well-known former Broadway and movie play, "Uncle Harry." The play about a man who is a murderer, but whom no one will believe was presented for three nights in the College Theatre before capacity audiences. Miss Elwyn is the daughter of Mrs. Alice Simmons, and is enrolled in the drama department at Ithaca College.
